See the charm these potted roses are adding on this balcony garden. Blooming roses are among the most beautiful ornamental plants that can be grown in the garden. It is hardly surprising that many rose lovers that have limited space also desire to grow them. Fortunately, growing roses in containers on a balcony, patio or terrace is possible, this way you can create a small rose garden. Except large variety of roses, you can grow all type of roses in containers. Choose Roses Wisely. Terraces are also called patios and the term came from, "terra" a Latin word meaning earth. Balcony came from a Latin word, "balcone", which means windows. Terraces are constructed on their own from the ground or created on rooftops of a building. Balconies have to be attached to the side of a building. Balconies are small in size and are have minimal uses. Terraces are larger and can be used in many ways including gardens, entertainment spots, and restaurants. In most residential areas the access of balconies is private and restricted to home residents of one apartment. Terraces are mostly pu
