Buddhism started in India over 2,600 years ago as a way life that had a potential of transforming a person. It is one of the important religions of South and South-Eastern Asian countries. The religion is based upon the teachings, life experiences of its founder Siddhartha Gautam, born in circa 563 BCE. Buddha asked his followers to avoid the two extremes of indulgence in worldly pleasure and the practice of strict abstinence and asceticism. He ascribed instead the 'Madhyam Marg' or the middle path which was to be followed. According to him everyone was responsible for their own happiness in life, stressing upon the individualistic component of Buddhism.
