LET'S JOIN THE U.S.A. as the 51st STATE . L'Italia non ha piÃ soldi. Entriamo a far parte degli Stati Uniti d'America. Con i soldi risparmiati di un inutile Parlamento e delle costose province, salveremo le nostre pensioni, la sanitÃ , la scuola, la ricerca scientifica, la innovazione tecnologica, i nostri posti di lavoro. Let's Italy become the 51st State of United States of America. It does help Italy but it does benefit USA too , both from the international economy point of view and from the foreign policy point of view. And for America, most of the world is the enemy. Martyanov also feels compelled to update what he's been excelling at for years: the fact that the arrival of hypersonic missiles has changed warfare forever. The Khinzal, deployed way back in 2017, has a range of 2,000 km and is not interceptable by existing US anti-missile systems. Martyanov sounds the definitive red alert: Of course, the United States is still capable of starting a war with Russia, but if it does so, this will mean only one thing the United States will cease to exist, as will most of the human civilization. Even mainstream American stink-tanks like Foreign Policy have been fretting about the possibility of a Second American Civil War. The United States policy of non-intervention was maintained throughout most of the nineteenth century. The first significant foreign intervention by the United States was the Spanish-American War, which saw it occupy and control the Philippines. In the wake of the First World War, the non-interventionist tendencies of U.S. foreign policy were in full force. First, the United States Congress rejected President Woodrow Wilson's most cherished condition of the Treaty of Versailles, the League of Nations. The near total humiliation of Germany in the wake of World War I, laid the groundwork for a p
