

Gaining by Losing: Why the Future Belongs to Churches That Send; J. D. Greear; 9780310533955; Zondervan, 2016; 2016; 256 pages

Gaining by Losing book. Read 85 reviews from the world's largest community for readers. People are leaving the church J.D. Greear pastors. Big givers. Ke...
Awesome book about how to position yourself as a leader that is developing and sending other leaders out and as a church that values SENDING PEOPLE and giving as a kingdom tithing principle. flag 2 likes
Like see review. Dec 05, 2019 Tim Johnson rated it it was amazing. Why the Future Belongs to Churches that Send. People are leaving the church J.D. Greear pastors. Big givers. Key volunteers. Some of his best leaders and friends. And that's exactly how he wants it to be. When Jesus gave his disciples the Great Commission, he revealed that the key for reaching the world with the gospel is found in sending, not gathering. I purchased Gaining By Losing on April 7, 2017. It was on sale for $3.99 (it's MUCH cheaper now) and I'd heard my church's leadership would be using the book for their mission. Hubby & I then took the church's class this fall & purchased a hard-copy to review in class, as well. Publisher & Date: September 13th 2016 by Zondervan (first published July 21st 2015). What does it mean to be a sending church, and how can yours become one in pursuit of fulfilling the great commission? The key to a biblically successful church is not how many people you can gather together, argues J.D Greear; the key is how many you can send out on mission. In his new book Gaining by Losing Why the Future Belongs to Churches that Send (Zondervan), Greear offers counsel to church leaders in reorienting their churches toward a focus on training disciples and sending them out to serve. This book will help readers recognize the symbol of church success is not seating capacity but sending capacity. Share This On: About The Author. Preaching.com.