Small business management is the process of optimizing all aspects of running a sustainable venture – including finance, marketing, product development, customer management, leadership, business planning, networking, decision-making and ongoing growth. In addition, individual skills such as time management and personal productivity are required to successfully manage a small business. In looking at the list above you might think, “This is a lot of stuff!” Yes, yes it is. Yet these are the things an entrepreneur must consider to move their venture forward. The things that are needed for entrepreneur He taught small business management and entrepreneurship at Reykjavik University in Iceland and business planning at the Russian-American Business Center in Magadan, Russia. Dr. Hatten has been passionate about small and family businesses his whole life. He grew up with the family-owned International Harvester farm equipment dealership in Bethany, Missouri, which his father started. Later, he owned and managed a Chevrolet/Buick/Cadillac dealership with his father, Drexel, and brother, Gary. Since entering academia, Dr. Hatten has actively brought students and small businesses together through The domain name small.business is for sale.
