Loved this book full of inspiring African-Americans as we teach our children about their ancestors! My kids are biracial and in school for black history month they only learned about MLK, Abe Lincoln, Rosa Parks etc but this takes that to the next and correct level!!! There are so many more African Americans that have shaped history in our country they need to see this! I am thankful to add this to our library it will be great especially now that we decided to homeschool, black history will be incorporated into their history! Read more.
