There's a Hippopotamus on Our Roof Eating Christmas Cake is about a young boy who finds a well a hippopotamus on his roof during the Christmas season. The book starts with our unnamed youngling hearing the sounds of thumping coming from his roof and although his dad says it's a man fixing their roof, he believes it is a hippopotamus getting ready for Christmas. As the boy prepares for his own Christmas with his family, his imagination comes up with all sorts of scenarios for this hippopotamus on the roof from it writing a Christmas list to the hippo dancing on the roof with fairy lights.
