No fixed abode or without fixed abode is a legal term generally applied to those who do not have a fixed geographical location as their residence. This is applicable to several groups: People who have a home, but which is not always in the same place (Definition of be of/have no fixed abode/address from the Cambridge Advanced Learner's Dictionary & Thesaurus Â© Cambridge University Press). Browse. be of service (to sb) idiom. be of sound/unsound mind idiom. be of the same mind idiom. be of two minds idiom. be of/have no fixed abode/address idiom. About "No Fixed Abode". I wrote this song about my time in Europe from 2014 and 2016. Where both times I spent a lot of time on the sleeping on the street, finding out who I am as a person. It's a retrospective track with sad lyrics but a happy melody. Where does the track name come from? The track was named after an experience he [Mitch] had with police in Amsterdam, who asked him for an address. He had to respond that he didn't have one so they wrote: "No Fixed Abode".
