Can Nell convince her friends and you that a book is more exciting than a mobile phone or a tablet? Find out in Nell's Book.Â Nell had no pets of her own, though she dearly wanted one. The photos in the book were beautiful. She especially liked one of a cat with golden eyes and very long fur. The fur was smoky grey. "Books are better than gadgets," she told herself, "though nothing is better than the real thing." She sighed deeply and ran her finger across the photo of the cat. A magical thing happened.
